Poetry can make it possible for us to like ourselves and the world in ways we could not before. While people have cared for poetry, carried poems in their wallets, framed poems like Kipling's If for their walls, people haven't known that poetry could be the true means of their liking the world they meet every day. Through the Aesthetic Realism of Eli Siegel poetry is able to be, in a new way ...

The side of a ship on which it was laden (that is loaded) was called the ladeboard, but its opposite, starboard, influenced a change in pronunciation to larboard. Then, because larboard was likely to be confused with starboard because of their similarity of sound, it was generally replaced by port.
