Don Carson's writing (at times faintly reminiscent of C. S. Lewis') is clear and concise, and The God Who Is There is compelling biblical theology, exploring who the God of the Bible is, the themes and arc narrative of the Bible, and doctrines of Christianity. Through the study of various Scripture passages from Genesis to Revelation, this book ...

The God Who Is There | Part 1 | The God Who Made Everything

The God Who Is There is a full, deep, penetrating look at society and its relation to the church (and vice versa), but it can be summarized in five basic passions, according to author and editor James Sire, in the foreword. One, a passion for the God who is there, the God who directly engages with his people. Two, a passion for truth.
